Dear Bill:

Many thanks for your letter of December
29 concerning [redacted]

My Personnel people inform me that an application has not been received from him. However, I have asked them to send [redacted] the necessary application forms which, when completed, will permit an appraisal of his background and capabilities. You may be sure that every consideration will be given his application.

Mory would join me in best wishes to you and Eunice if she knew I were writing.

Sincerely,

12/ W. B. Smith
